

REMARKS

New claims 24 – 31 are being added by this Preliminary Amendment prior to examination of the present application on its merits. They are directed to a non-volatile memory array structure wherein control gates extending across an array of charge storage elements also provide field isolation between charge storage elements.

An Information Disclosure Statement and copies of the cited references are also being filed herewith. A review of these references and making them of record in the file of this application are requested.

An early examination and allowance of claims 1 – 31 are solicited.
